Cuban Music to Kick Off Popular Concerts in the Cove Series

The 18th Annual Concerts in the Cove kicks off tonight in North Vancouver's Panorama Park in Deep Cove from 7 – 9 pm with the Cuban sounds of La Candela. The public is invited to enjoy this FREE, outdoor, family-friendly evening, proudly presented by Pacific Arbour Retirement Communities. Set against the scenic backdrop of the Indian Arm inlet and Deep Cove Marina, the public is invited to bring their blanket or lawn chairs and enjoy the music with family, friends and the community.

Pacific Arbour Retirement Communities is the new presenting sponsor of the Concerts in the Cove. Pacific Arbour currently operates the Summerhill Retirement Residence in North Vancouver, as well as the Mulberry Retirement Residence in Burnaby. They are committed to partnering with community organizations that support seniors, families and children, and strengthen our neighbourhoods. The company's investment in this popular community concert series enables the series to present five live concerts this year.

Concerts in the Cove which runs every Friday from July 16 to August 13, is one of three Friday night concert series taking place across North Vancouver from mid-July through mid-August. Evenings in Edgemont began July 9 and runs through August 27 and the 2nd Annual Live in Lynn Valley continues until August 20. A diverse selection of music is featured with something for every musical taste. For more information about performances and locations: please visit www.northvanrec.com or call us at 604-987-PLAY(7529).

Concerts in the Cove is part of the North Vancouver Summer Concert Series which are organized by the North Vancouver Recreation Commission on behalf of the City of North Vancouver and the District of North Vancouver.
